For each visitor to <http://pinkrockcandy.net>, my Web server automatically recognizes no information regarding the domain or e-mail address.

I collect: the e-mail addresses of those who submit comments on my posts, the e-mail addresses of those who communicate with me via e-mail, aggregate information on what pages visitors access or visit, information volunteered by the visitor, such as survey information and/or site registrations.

I will not share any of your information with outside sources unless legally bound to do so.

The information I collect maybe used to notify visitors about updates to Pink Rock Candy.

If you do not want to receive e-mail from me in the future, please let me know by sending me an e-mail at the above address.

If you supply me with your postal address on-line you will only receive the information for which you provided your address.

From time to time, I may use visitor information for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed in our privacy notice. If my information practices change at some time in the future I will contact you before I use your data for these new purposes to notify you of the policy change, and I will post the policy changes to Pink Rock Candy. You will have the ability to opt out of these new uses. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should check back at our Web site periodically.

Visitors may prevent their information from being used for purposes other than those for which it was originally collected by e-mailing me at the above address.

Upon request I provide site visitors with access to communications that the visitor has directed to our site (e.g., e-mails, visitor inquiries). Visitors can access this information by e-mailing me at the above address.

Upon request I offer visitors the ability to have inaccuracies corrected in contact information.

Visitors can have this information corrected by sending me e-mail at the above address.
